DRC-NH Staff: So one in five Americans with disabilities. What would you do in your administration to help ensure people with disabilities are part of your administration? And what would you do to help employment for people with disabilities?

Steve Bullock: Well in every step, and we tried to do things in Montana as well, voc rehab [inaudible] both elevating it and ensuring, you know, I haven't figured out, as far as any of the specific staffing staffing, but I also listen to the disability community and ask them – and that's what we've done in Montana - what are the specific barriers for your employment and how do we address them?

A guy named Jack Markell, former governor of Delaware, actually put together a great program for state-by-state [inaudible].

DRC-NH Staff: Thank you for your time.

SB: Thank you.
